

CHRISTCHURCH WESTERN RIDING ASSOCIATION

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Respect all people involved and present at events held at CWRA grounds. This includes all competitors, officials, administrators and spectators, regardless of gender, ability, sexual orientation, age, cultural background, or religion.
- Uphold animal welfare and safety at all times.
- Accept and respect rules that are in force.
- Do not engage in any form of harassment, bullying, abuse, violence, intimidation, or insult of others. This includes the use of social media to enforce same.
- Do not engage in any behaviour that may bring Christchurch Western Riding Association, its members, or the sport of western riding into disrepute.
- Do not engage in conduct that is unethical, unbecoming, or likely to cause harm to the reputation of Christchurch Western Riding Association, its members or the sport of Western Riding in general.
- Understand the consequences if you breach Christchurch Western Riding Association rules and regulations.

CWRA's committee may review the code of conduct from time to time. Failure to comply with the above rules may result in revocation of membership and refusal of entry onto CWRA's grounds.